RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECT

Right to withdraw the consent - In cases where we process your personal data with your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. You may withdraw the consent electronically, at the address of the responsible person, in writing, by a notice of withdrawal of consent or in person directly at our registered office. The withdrawal of consent will not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

Right of access by the data subject - You have the right to provide a copy of the personal data we hold about you, as well as information about how we use your personal data. In most cases, your personal data will be provided to you in written form, unless otherwise is requested. If you have requested this information by electronic means, it will be provided to you electronically, if it is technically possible.

Right to rectification - We take reasonable steps to ensure the accuracy, completeness and timeliness of the information we have about you. If you believe that the information, we hold is inaccurate, incomplete or outdated, please do not hesitate to ask us to modify, update or complete this information.

Right to erasure ('right to be forgotten') - You have the right to ask us to erase your personal data, for example if the personal data we have collected about you is no longer necessary to fulfill the original purpose of the processing. However, your right must be assessed in the light of all relevant circumstances. For example, we may have certain legal and regulatory obligations, which means that we will not be able to comply with your request.

Right to restriction of processing - In certain circumstances, you may ask us to stop processing your personal data. For example, if you think that the personal data, we have about you may be inaccurate, or if you think we no longer need to use your personal data.

Right to data portability - In certain circumstances, you have the right to ask us to transfer the personal data you provided to us to another third party of your choice. However, the right to portability applies only to personal data that we have obtained from you by consent or under a contract to which you are a party.

Right to object - You have the right to object to data processing that is based on our legitimate interests. If we do not have a valid legitimate reason for processing and you object to that, we will not further process your personal data.

Right to file a notion or to initiate a proceeding on personal data protection that is the Office of Personal Data Protection - If you do believe that your personal data are processed unfairly or unlawfully, you may file a complaint with the supervisory authority, The Office for Personal Data Protection of the Slovak Republic, registered office: Hraničná 12, 820 07 Bratislava 27; tel. No.: +421 / 2/3231 3214; mail: statny.dozor@pdp.gov.sk, <https://dataprotection.gov.sk>. If the application is submitted electronically, it is necessary to fulfill the requirements pursuant to Sec. 19 (1) of Act No. 71/1967 Coll. on Administrative Procedure (Administrative Procedure Code).
